

There was once in Bagdad the magnificent, a Grand Vizir (1.50 m in slippers) who knew only one goal.

I want to be Caliph instead of the Caliph!

The Caliph Haroun al Plassid, however, was a very peaceful man.

Ah, nothing is as wonderful as a little siesta after a full night of sleep.

Iznogoud however dreamed only of one thing: to get him out of the way.

And by any means necessary!

Will he poison the Caliph?

Here is your soup,
O Commander
of the Faithful!

One moment!
Me first, I am the Caliph's taster!

Ally himself with a fairy?

No! Don't transform me
into a billy goat!

Go courting the maid?

My sweet,
I have a gift
for you!

Bribe a foreign Sultan?

How much to overthrow the Caliph?

Everything!

Hatch a plot with the guards?

Secure your green turban!

Acquire a magic article?

That's too expensive!!

Stay out of the way of the mad painter!!

Nincompoop!!
I'm the genuine one!

Fortunately, Iznogoud can count on his faithful servant...

I need a volunteer!

Wa'at Alahf, who is cheerful, courageous, ready for anything.

Get over here, or I slit your belly!!!

Ah... Yes, master, but I've just put some milk on to boil...

Additionally, 4 controls are at our Grand Vizier's disposal.

To give something

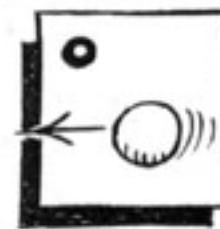

Push this direction
and press the fire button
at the same time.

Threaten

Push this direction
and press the fire button
at the same time.

Calm or Flatter

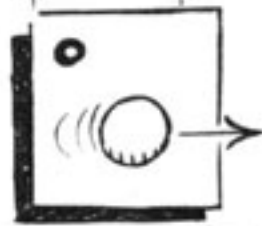

Push this direction
and press the fire button
at the same time.

Tantrum

Push this direction
and press the fire button
at the same time.

But he may not err himself,
otherwise...

or even...

Despite all this, he should not forget that Bagdad is the realm of magic...

And that anything possible can happen...

so it goes with things,
human or not-so-human natured!!!

But the job is worthwhile.

But there is only one solution!
