Like most people Monty has two main ambitious in life, to 'get rich quick' and to become a hero. Here he has the opportunity to achieve both.

He has only to make his way through forty rooms collecting all the gold on route and rescue 'the damsel in distress'. What Monty is not aware of are the countless alliens are all set to stop him, from the dreaded Parallelians and the very beautiful but extremely rare Quantum Leapies and also that he has to pass through the pit of extreme flies, the inside of a newtoon accelorator and cross the desolate waste of the pithor before he can finally rescue the fair maiden.

And this with only 5 lives and the clock ticking away against his score. Should Monty continue or should he ever stop for a think at the conveniently placed refreshment bar? Poor Monty, only the brave should play.
