GAME INFO

So there your were, pulling up outside your local Foourd dealer in your clapped out Laader 1000L complete with free flowing air intakes, (rust!) for a test drive.

However, after taking a wrong turn, you find yourself in the middle of the local alien communities.

And they are not too happy about you being there!!!

You must fight off the alien attacks against you using only your skill and agility (and the bolt on weaponry sent to you courtesy of Foourd).

To collect the weapon that is indicated on the panel, simply run into the pod that comes towards you.

A pod is only awarded when all the attacking aliens have been destroyed.
